Learn the basics of business, participate in fun art and craft workshops at the library then sell your hand-made craft at your local market!

What's involved?

This program runs over two months with fun activities and workshops designed to prepare you for selling your craft at a real life market.

There are three fun workshops to attend and of course the local market where you will be selling all your art and craft.

To get the most out of this program we recommend you attend all the workshops - you won't want to miss out on any of the fun!

Program outline

Get busy with business

Upper Coomera Branch Library

Saturday 14 September 2013 9am - 12.30pm

A half day workshop to help you understand the basics of business. Fun activities that teach you everything you need to know to run a successful market stall. Pizza lunch provided.

Get crafty

Upper Coomera Branch Library

Tuesday 17 September

Thursday 19 September

3.30pm - 5.30pm

Now that you know the basics of running a market stall it's time to get your craft on! Get creative at two after school art and craft workshops and pick up ideas on how you can design and make a product to sell.

Get ready

You have some great ideas, now it's time to make your product. Over the September school holidays make your products, package and price them for sale.

Market time

Upper Market - Upper Coomera State College

Sunday 6 October

8am (for a 8.45am start)

It's time to reap the rewards and sell your product to the public. Bring your finished craft along to the Upper Market, Upper Coomera, where we will have a spot ready for you to sell your product to the local community.

Don't forget to brush up on all the great tips your learnt at the 'Get busy with business' workshop!
